Why We Exist

Solutions shaped by understanding, not assumption.

YMC Edge:

We don't begin with assumptions or off-the-shelf answers.

We begin by understanding what will truly serve — and build solutions that fit.

Clients navigating complex capital challenges aren't short on options — but too often, no one truly takes the time to understand them. At YMC, we exist to listen first. To uncover what will genuinely serve, not just what the market has to offer. That's how we build solutions that fit.

Products don't solve complexity. Solutions do

Clients are offered what others want to sell, not what they truly need. YMC begins by listening — and builds to fit.

Fragmented advice leads to costly mistakes

When no one takes the time to truly understand the client's situation, solutions don't fit — they cost time, money, and opportunity.

The right people, at the right time, for the right job

YMC is institution-agnostic. We bring together the right expertise and partners, aligned to client needs — never to an agenda.

Who We Serve

Those navigating complexity, seeking partners who listen first.

YMC Edge:

We don't fit clients to solutions.

*We build solutions that fit
the client.*

YMC Capital serves clients who face complexity — family offices, founders, corporates, and institutions navigating unique challenges. What unites them isn't their category — it's the need for a partner who listens first + builds what fits.

Family Office + Founders + HNWI

We help protect and shape their purpose — with solutions built around what truly matters to them, not what the market wants to sell.

Institutions + Corporates

We bring structure and trusted guidance that turns complexity into clarity — so they can act with confidence, even in the most intricate situations.

Complex Cases

Where others step back, we step in — with care, precision, and the right partners to solve what others leave unresolved.

Every client, every challenge: we listen first,
then build what's right.

How We Deliver Value

Two business lines, one focus: structuring excellence.

YMC Edge:

At YMC, we don't believe in over-engineering or dressing things up.

Our edge is simple:

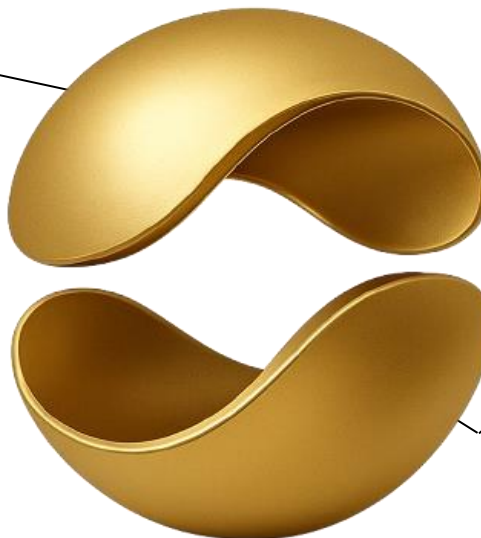

we listen carefully, we design solutions that fit, and we stay focused on what actually delivers value for our clients.

YMC Capital is a boutique firm built around two business lines: Asset Management and Advisory. We design bespoke funds, tailored mandates, and structuring solutions to help clients solve complex capital challenges in illiquid, intricate markets. Relationships, alignment, and thoughtful design — not scale — define our edge.

Asset Management

Bespoke Funds + Tailored Mandates

We create bespoke funds and tailored mandates across private credit, special situations, and digital assets — designed for complex, illiquid markets.

Advisory

Structuring + Problem-Solving Solutions

We provide structuring, governance, and capital solutions to help clients navigate complex financial challenges.

Two business lines working as one:
solving complex capital needs with care, structure, and alignment.

Trust + Relationships: The YMC Discipline

Intentional. Disciplined. Lasting.

YMC Edge:

Trust isn't a soft value — it's part of how we deliver.

It's built the same way we build solutions: with care, alignment, and discipline applied at every stage. Our relationships reflect the same commitment — structured, intentional, and built to last.

Every relationship we build, whether with clients, partners, or our network, follows a disciplined process. It starts with alignment, is shaped through precision, and is proven through consistent delivery. This is how trust becomes the foundation of everything we do.

Understand Before We Act

We listen first — so that every relationship starts with genuine understanding, not assumptions.

1

Curate the Right Network For the Client

We bring in the right expertise, at the right time, for the right purpose — always institution-agnostic, always outcome-focused.

3

Protect Relationships Through Discretion and Care

Every engagement is personal. We operate with the discretion and attention that lasting trust demands.

Align Incentives at Every Level

Our structures are designed so that client success is the driver of our success — from mandates to fees to partnerships.

4

Deliver Consistently, Across Cycles

We stay with clients through the life of a mandate — refining, solving, protecting. Trust is built through delivery, not promises.

What We Deliver

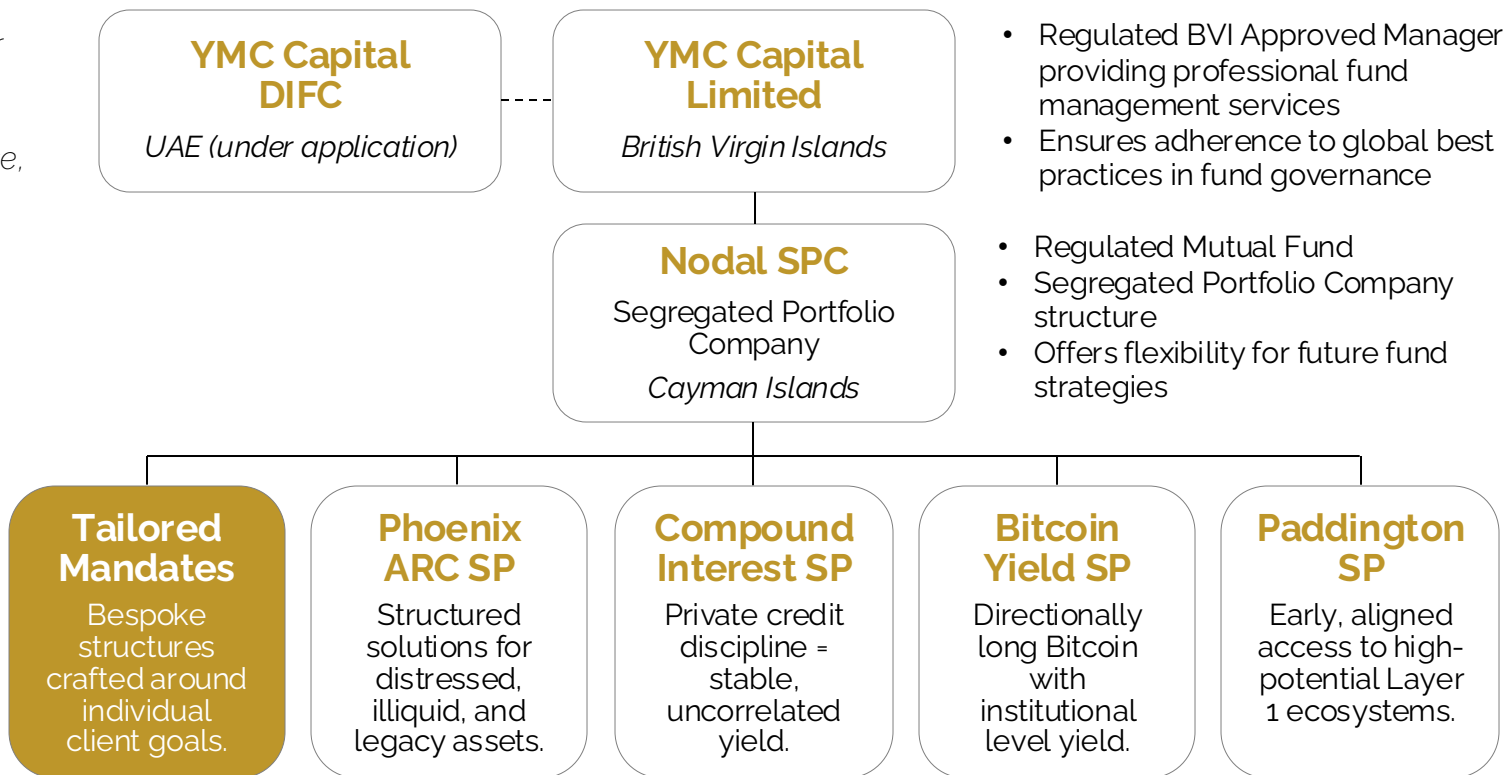

Funds, mandates, and solutions — designed to fit.

YMC Capital delivers value through bespoke funds, tailored mandates, and structuring solutions. Every product we build is designed around client-specific objectives — no off-the-shelf models, no compromises.

YMC Edge:

What we deliver reflects how we work: precise, built-for-purpose, and always aligned to the client's needs — never generic, never off-the-shelf.
